Comment on planning application: R/07/59B Little Barn, West of End House, High Fremington.

Full planning permission for conversion of barn to local occupancy dwelling and erection of single storey extension

Dear Mr Davis

Friends of the Dales understands that the important archaeological interest of Fremington Dyke may be compromised by this proposal. Just as we would expect the historic interest of the barn to be conserved, so should the archaeological interest of the adjacent land. We therefore expect that the views and recommendations of the appropriate subject matter expert be given due consideration and weight by the Planning Committee in reaching its decision.

Yours sincerely

Dr Malcolm Petyt, Chair of Policy Committee

Friends of the Dales is a working name of the Yorkshire Dales Society which was founded in 1981 and is a registered charity and company limited by guarantee. Friends of the Dales is free of political and financial affiliations. We work to ensure that the Government, the Yorkshire Dales National Park Authority, and other relevant agencies deliver their obligations to care for the special qualities of the Yorkshire Dales, an internationally important area. We do this by considering major planning applications and policy development affecting the Yorkshire Dales and adjacent areas. We offer a year round programme of walks and talks so that everyone can enjoy and learn more about this beautiful area and why it needs protection. We have a membership of around 1,300 individuals, families, businesses and organisations.
